

Time to Train: Clinical Guidelines for Major Incidents

Monday 4th November 2019

1.00 pm – 5.00 pm

Venue: Walker's Hall, King Power Stadium, Leicester

13:00	Registration and networking over coffee
13:30	Opening Address Mr. John Jameson, Deputy Medical Director
13:35	An Overview of UHL's Major Incident & Mass Casualty Plan Mr. Ben Collins, Emergency Preparedness, Resilience & Response Manager, UHL Professor Tim Coats, Professor of Emergency Medicine, UHL
13:50	An Introduction to Clinical Guidelines for Major Incidents Professor Tim Coats, Professor of Emergency Medicine, UHL ➤ Purpose of the Clinical Guidelines / Mechanisms of Injury
14:05	Clinical Guidelines for Major Incidents Relevant to All Specialties ~ Speakers to be confirmed ➤ Major incident senior clinical decision making / Forensic awareness in a major incident / Pain management in a major incident / Antimicrobial prophylaxis in a major incident / Major incident imaging
14:55	Comfort Break & Handouts of Clinical Guidelines for Major Incidents Provided to All
15:10	Breakout Sessions: Delegates to attend 2 of the 5 sessions, each lasting 30 minutes and covering both adults and children
	1. Damage Control ➤ Immediate wound management / Major incident anaesthesia for P1 / Resus casualties / Major incident surgical / Proximal haemorrhage control / Blast lung in a major incident
	2. LRI Surgery ➤ Major incident abdominal trauma / Major incident pelvic and long bone injury / Major incident universal fasciotomies / Head, face and neck injuries in a major incident / Blast ear and hearing loss in a major incident / Eye injuries in a major incident / Safe spinal injury care in a major incident
	3. Non-LRI Specialties ➤ Major incident neuro trauma / Major incident vascular trauma / Major incident thoracic trauma / Burns in a major incident
	4. Acute Medical Support ➤ Support for trauma care / Maintenance of BAU
	5. Aftercare ➤ Rehabilitation co-ordination and medical support in a major incident / Psychosocial support for staff / Bereavement care in a major incident
16:10	Putting it into Practice: The Manchester Arena Attack Prof. Paul Dark, Professor of Critical Care Medicine, University of Manchester
16:55	Summary Feedback & Closing Remarks Mr. Andrew Furlong, Medical Director
17:00	End